Vote for the 2024-25 Common Reader

Norfolk State University’s common reader program seeks to foster a shared intellectual experience among all members of our university community, by choosing a thought-provoking book that promotes critical thinking, intellectual inquiry, engagement with different perspectives and supports our Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP).

The program also includes the reading of a common text by first-year students, guided discussions during first-year orientation, integration into the first-year seminar course, and author talks.

Below is a list of books suggested as the 2024-2025 Common Reader for NSU.

Please designate your suggestions with star ratings, using the 5-star rating for your strongest suggestion. We would appreciate your input/feedback.
