Norfolk Neighborhood's Network proudly presents the film,
"The Old Flag Never Touched the Ground."
The New Student Center, Room 149 – 5:00 p.m.

15 minute film

"The Old Flag Never Touched the Ground" is a riveting and poignant look at how African Americans served and fought during the Civil War. Join us for a personal one on one interview with Dr. James Horton, one of the foremost experts on slavery and African American history.

Take a step back in time as Dr. Horton explores the role of African Americans during this explosive time in our nation's history and the myths that have emerged since the end of the Civil War.

Norfolk State University and the Norfolk Sister City Association proudly presents,
"Canadian Connections with Civil War Hampton Roads"
The New Student Center, Room 149 – 5:00 p.m. (immediately following the film)

Led by Halifax, Nova Scotia officials, local historians, historical societies, and the Black Cultural Centre for Nova Scotia, this presentation and discussion will explore the historical and genealogical connections from the American Revolution to the Civil War. Halifax is one of Norfolk's official sister cities.
