

Norfolk State University celebrates National Constitution Day

Monday, September 14 -18, 2009

The Lyman Beecher Brooks Library staff will play several DVDs about the U.S. Constitution in the main Lobby.

Voter Registration Drive

The Political Science Association, Phi Alpha Delta law-International/Pre-law chapter
Mills E. Godwin Student Center and other campus locations TBA
(November is a major election year for the next Governor of Virginia)

Tuesday, September 15, 2009, 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

The Political Science Student Association, Phi Alpha Delta Law- International/Pre-law chapter
Panel Debate on the Health Care issue
Coordinated by Dr. Kimberly L. Hutson and Dr. Tessaw S. Gizaw
Location: Scott Dozier Dining Hall Ballroom TBA

Wednesday, September 16, 2009, 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.

Community Forum: "Diversifying the Supreme Court in the 21st Century"
Moderator, Dr. Carol Pretlow, Associate Professor, Political Science
Location: Scott Dozier Dining Hall Ballroom

Thursday, September 17, 2009, 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Annual Constitution Day Program
L. Douglas Wilder Performing Arts Center
Dr. Carolyn W. Meyers, President of Norfolk State University will lead the recitation of the U.S. Preamble
Guest Speaker Delegate Algie T. Howell, Jr., 90th District

Academic Co-Curricular Activities

The Office of First Year Experience and the Humanities program will study the U.S. Constitution through a series of lectures and multi-media resources

It is a federal mandate to observe this day, before federal funds can be disbursed to state colleges and universities, for the academic year. Faculty and Staff are encouraged to include something about the U.S. Constitution in your instructions leading up to the actual event, and encourage students to attend the activities. For additional information, contact Dr. Amelia Ross-Hammond, Committee Chair anross-hammond@nsu.edu / (757) 823-8544

Funded by Title III

