

ENROLLMENT MANAGEMENT

Helping You Plan for Success — Important Dates and Information to Remember

October 2011

1	Spring Admission Priority Deadline
3—8	Mid-Semester Examination Period
6	Transfer Thursday information session for prospective new transfer students
8	Mini-Term II Classes Begin
13	Fall Career Fair 10:30 a.m. New Student Center
14	Last Day to Drop Family Weekend Begins
23—29	Homecoming Week
24	Registration for Spring 2012 Begins

November 2011

3	Transfer Thursday information session for prospective new transfer students
6	Daylight Savings Time Begins
19	First View Expo
23	Reading Day University Closes at noon
24	Thanksgiving Break Begins
28	Classes Resume

Please visit the University academic calendars:

<http://www.nsu.edu/registrar/calendars.html>

University Policy

Remember to check your NSU e-mail daily for official communications including billing, financial aid, and registration notices.

FYI

If you have any academic concerns, please visit your advisor and/or the ACCESS office located in the Bowser Building room 118.

For the fastest and most convenient method to obtain the latest class scheduling information, register for classes, check financial information and pay on-line use

Located at www.nsu.edu/mynsu

