

America's 400th Anniversary:
Voices From Within the Veil

Exhibitor Opportunities

On February 22-23, 2007, Norfolk State University will host this conference at the Sheraton Waterside in Norfolk, Virginia. This two-day national conference will focus on a multi-disciplinary dialogue among scholars nationally on the issue of African American rights in the United States.

Thank you for your interest and in our conference and we invite you to join us for what promises to be memorable conference for attendees and exhibitors.

By becoming a part of this conference, your business or organization will:

- Participate in a national commemoration focusing on America's 400th Anniversary
- Connect with a target audience comprised of scholars, students, and laypersons from around the nation interested in this important topic investigating democracy from the African American perspective
- Gain visibility through listings in conference printed and electronic materials
- Showcase your products and services
- Enhance your position in the marketplace

Exhibitors will benefit from Norfolk State University's commitment to draw attendees to the conference and exposition area, providing numerous opportunities to showcase your products and services and to engage the anticipated attendee audience of over 200.

Please complete the Exhibitor Registration form and return it either by mail or fax to (757) 823-2512 to reserve your exhibit space. Space is limited, so please register early! If you have any questions, please call (757) 823-8344.

Thank you for your support of this exciting event. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Dr. Charles Ford
