

America's 400th Anniversary Conference: Voices from within the Veil
February 21-23, 2007, at Norfolk State University and the Sheraton-Waterside

ATTENTION: STUDENTS THROUGHOUT HAMPTON ROADS!
Create a poster or write a poem on the impact of the Jamestown Settlement!

Norfolk State University, in conjunction with the Federal Commission on Jamestown2007 and its African American Advisory Council, announces a

Poster and Poetry Competition

The Honorary Conference Chair is Governor Timothy Kaine!

Norfolk State University's Jamestown conference theme: "Voices from within the Veil" raises awareness of African American perspectives on American Democracy.

- Deadline for entries: December 31, 2006
- Guidelines: Visit www.nsu.edu/jamestown2007. Contact number: (757) 823-8373
- Twenty-one semi-finalists artwork displayed at the Chrysler Museum through March 31, 2007.
- Entries judged anonymously in three categories: Middle, High and College levels.
- Winners announced at Reception and Exhibit on February 21, 2007, at the Chrysler Museum.
- Prizes: Gift certificates, Jamestown Tour, Busch Garden Tickets and more!
- Sponsors: The Chrysler Museum and Wal-Mart Inc.

