Education Databases

Access databases from NSU Articles & Databases A-Z <http://library.nsu.edu/>.

The library's databases grant access to abstracts and full-text journal articles online. If you find an abstract for an article first check the library's periodicals holdings list to determine if the library owns the hard/print copy of the journal article. Then, if the library does not own the print version of the journal article, request it through ILLiad at <http://nsu.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/logon.html>.
