
Norfolk State University Implements Emergency Alert System

send word now

During the week of March 17, NSU students, faculty, and staff will receive an email invitation from NSU Campus Alerts via Send Word Now. This email will contain a hyperlink. Simply click on the hyperlink and a Web page will open where you can see your current contact information. At this time, you will be able to update the rest of your emergency contact information.

If you want to receive emergency alerts from university officials, you MUST update your contact information. Send Word Now is able to send alerts to your cell phone, text messaging, email, Blackberry, PDA, etc. Be in the know. When you receive the invitation, don't wait — self update!

You will have until Monday, March 24 to update your contact information.

Stay tuned to the Spartan e-Daily for more information and detailed self update instructions.

It is critical that you respond to this email and update your contact information so that in case of any type of emergency situation, NSU officials will be able to reach you in a timely manner.

NOTE: This hyperlink can only be used once. Please ensure that your information is correct before you hit the submit button.
