Policy Type: Administrative Policy

Policy Number: Administrative Policy # 60-03 (2014)

Approved: President

Responsible Office: Department of Athletics

Responsible Executive: Director of Athletics

Applies to: University Community and Outside Organizations

POLICY STATEMENT

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics provides a standard code of conduct to uphold scholarship and competitive performance through development of an appreciation for fairness, openness and support of coaches and student-athletes, on and off the field of competition. Each member of the Norfolk State University community shares in the responsibility for their personal conduct and in some cases may assume reasonable responsibility for the behavior of others. Student-athletes, department personnel, coaches and fans are required to engage in the responsible conduct that positively reflects the University community.

DEFINITIONS

Sportsmanship is defined as the practice of participating in sports with a conduct and attitude considered to be befitting of a participant in that sport, especially fair play, courtesy, striving spirit, and grace in losing. It encompasses both Ethical Behavior and acts of Integrity.

Ethics is defined as the principles of right and wrong that are accepted by an individual or a group. It is a system of principles governing acceptable conduct.

Integrity is defined as a firm adherence to a code of values that incorporates the principles of honesty.

CONTACT(S)

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Business Office officially interprets this policy. The Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration/SWA is responsible for obtaining approval for any revisions as required by the Director of Athletics through the appropriate governance structures. Questions regarding this policy should be directed to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

SPORTSMANSHIP AND CONDUCT POLICY CONTENT

This policy establishes basic guidelines for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics student-athletes, coaches, department personnel and fans regarding sportsmanship and conduct.

It is the responsibility of each individual employed by or directly associated with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner when representing their institution, especially at intercollegiate athletic contests.

This policy is written to help maintain a healthy balance between fair play and safety. Sportsmanship, civility and conduct of student-athletes, coaches, staff and fans are an essential focus on the field of competition. While the game atmosphere is often competitive, ensuring participant safety and promoting sportsmanlike behavior among participants and team followers are our primary concern. The game atmosphere should remain good natured at all times.

Disciplinary action shall be assessed to individuals exhibiting unsportsmanlike conduct.

PUBLICATION

This policy shall be widely published or distributed to the Athletics community. To ensure timely publication and distribution thereof, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will make every effort to:

1. Communicate the policy in writing, electronically or otherwise, to the University community within 14 days of approval;
2. Post the policy on the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Website (www.nsuspartans.com); and
3. Educate and train all stakeholders and appropriate audiences on the policy's content, as necessary.

Failure to satisfy procedural requirements does not invalidate this policy.
