University Faculty

The University faculty has the right to select a representative body for efficiency of operation to facilitate the participation, communication, role and responsibilities of the faculty at the University. The Faculty may also provide the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs advice and counsel on other academic matters.

Faculty have primary responsibility for fundamental academic areas such as curriculum, subject matter and methods of instruction, research, faculty recruitment and status, degree requirements, and the aspects of student life that relate to academic progress. The University Faculty recommends approval of the establishment of new degree programs and major modifications to existing degree programs.

Through its representative body, the Faculty Senate, and designated committees, faculty will participate in other matters that concern the operation and welfare of the University and have reasonable opportunity to participate in the process for recommending amendments to the Teaching Faculty Handbook.

A member of the University faculty will be selected by the Board from a list of three faculty elected by the faculty to serve as an advisory, non-voting member to the Board in all open session meetings. The Faculty Senate will oversee the process and provide the list of faculty and their supporting biographical information to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and the President no later than 14 calendar days prior to the first meeting of the Board of Visitors. The selected faculty member serves a term of not less than one 12 month period, which shall be coterminous with the fiscal year. A substitute is not permitted. University faculty may serve on committees upon request by the Board of Visitors, President, Vice Presidents, or other administrative officer of the University.

Through all of these mechanisms, University faculty share their expertise and insights on academic matters with the members of the Board of Visitors, President, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, and Vice Presidents.

Nothing herein shall prohibit the Board of Visitors from excluding the faculty representative from discussions of faculty grievances, faculty or staff disciplinary matters, or salaries or other matters, at the discretion of the Board. See Code of Virginia § 23-9.2:4.1.
