Thurgood Marshall Pre-Law Club Returns to NSU

The Thurgood Marshall Pre-Law Club at Norfolk State University has a proud history dating back to the 1990s. For many years, it was one of the University's most vibrant student organizations until it became inactive in 2015. This fall, the club was officially reactivated, continuing a legacy that connects law, leadership, and service.

Meet the Starship Delivery Robots

The Starship Delivery Robots will provide a frictionless option for students, faculty, and staff to utilize dining services with the convenience of state-of-the-art robot delivery technology. Currently, this system only services the West Dining location, which consists of Legion Dining, Suparuta, and Bodega 300.

The mobile Starship Application is integrated with the University ID and the SpartanCard. This allows the usage of Dining Dollars and SpartanBucks with the SpartanCard. This implementation required collaboration with Thompson Hospitality, the SpartanCard Office, Auxiliary Enterprises & Services, Office of Information Technology, and Facilities Management.

The Institutional Effectiveness Division of Operations invites you to read the Workday Wire, which provides updates on the ongoing journey to implement Workday and transform the way we work.

Now is Our Time to Elevate Athletics

If we can expand an athlete's opportunities to access programs such as Leadership Academy, study abroad, and incentives toward degree completion, we can better ensure that NSU Spartans start life after college on an even playing field.
