On January 17, 2021, Norfolk State University (NSU) was awarded student emergency aid funding of $3,450,858 pursuant to Section 314(a)(1) of the CRRSAA. Additionally, on May 14, 2021, NSU was awarded student emergency aid funding of $10,000,096 pursuant to section 2003 of the ARP. These awards supplemented the initial award of $3,450,858 under the CARES Act funding for a cumulative award amount of $16,901,812. The U.S. Department of Education (USDOE) added the supplemental CRRSAA and ARP awards to the University's existing Student Aid Portion award number P425E200385; therefore, no action was required by NSU to receive these supplemental awards. Drawing down any amounts of these supplemental funds constitute NSU's acceptance of the applicable terms and conditions under the CRRSAA and ARP programs, and as described in the Supplemental Agreements. Funds drawn by NSU were used pursuant to the requirement designated under the CRRSAA and ARP programs to provide emergency financial aid grants to students.

- 2. The total amount of funds that the institution will receive or has received from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) and (a)(4) programs.

The total number of students who received the Emergency Financial Aid Grants are as follows:

6. The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under the CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) and (a)(4) programs..

Students who were enrolled in the Spring 2021 semester at NSU and met the following criteria were considered for the Emergency Financial Aid Grants:

- Enrolled in a degree program
- Enrolled in at least a 3-hour course
- U.S Citizen or Eligible Non-Citizen
- 2020-21 FASFA on file with NSU that indicated the student met the citizenship requirements.

Additionally, CRRSAA requires institutions to prioritize students with exceptional need, such as students who receive Pell Grants. NSU defines exceptional need for the purpose of these funds based on two populations:

- Group 1 – students who met the above criteria and had an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from FAFSA less than $5,712 received $1,274.32.
- Group 2 – students not in Group 1 who met the above criteria and had exceptional need based on the completion of the HEERF II grant survey received $1,000.

Furthermore, for students who were enrolled during the Fall 2021 semester and/or the Spring 2022 semester, ARP requires that institutions to prioritize students with exceptional need, such as students who received Pell Grants or other types of exceptional need. NSU defined exceptional need for the purpose of these funds based upon two student populations for the both the Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 semesters:

- Group 1: Students eligible for need-based financial aid during the Fall 2021 semester received $1,088 and $1,186.45 in Spring 2022 semester.

- Group 2: Students, not in Group 1, eligible based upon exceptional need after completion of the HEERF III grant survey during the Fall 2021 and/or the Spring semesters, received $1,000.

Note: For all semesters, Group 1 students who received an award were not eligible to apply for an additional award as part of Group 2.
