The Presidential Naval ROTC Preparatory Scholarship provides economically and/or academically disadvantaged applicants with a unique opportunity to earn a commission in the United States Navy. This scholarship provides an extra year of academics and military orientation focused on preparing students for NROTC success.

Norfolk State University will provide tuition*, fees, room & board for a one-year NROTC preparation program as Midshipmen Candidates. Provided the candidates meet the criteria listed below they will be awarded a NROTC scholarship for up to four additional years to Norfolk State University.

Requirements:
- Successfully complete a Department of Defense medical exam and NROTC indoctrination training
- Pursue a science / technical major (Tier 1 / Tier 2 - 29 majors available)
- Maintain greater than a 2.8 GPA
- Pass the Navy’s Physical Fitness Assessment once a semester with a score of “Good Low” or better
- Maintain good standing within the ROTC unit
- Reside in the NSU Joint Forces Living Learning Center

Immersed in history and tradition, the Norfolk State University NROTC has proven to be a successful path to commissioning. Located near the largest naval station in the world, Norfolk State has access to many Navy and Marine Corps facilities, personnel, and activities in order to enhance and better prepare midshipmen for their future endeavors as Naval Officers.

* Scholarship may not fully fund out-of-state tuition. Out-of-state applicants are welcome to apply and can qualify for in-state tuition through the Academic Common Market program for their state. https://www.sreb.org/academic-common-market

 Good standing is defined as maintaining academic, disciplinary and physical requirements per NSTC 1533.2C - Regulations for Officer Development, as well as, receive a positive endorsement from the Professor of Naval Science.
